WHAT IS BHHEP?

The Behavioral Health Higher Education Program (BHHEP) is a tuition reimbursement program designed by The Behavioral Health Alliance of Rural Pennsylvania (BHARP) and its member counties, in partnership with Donnelly-Boland and Associates and Community Family Advocates. BHHEP provides tuition assistance to Pennsylvania students pursuing behavioral health degrees. In exchange, students intern with a provider during their education AND/OR work for a provider for two years post-graduation. The program aims to improve staffing in the HealthChoices network, increasing access to behavioral health services.

CORE BENEFITS:

- Tuition Assistance
- Full-Time Employment Opportunities
- Internship Experience
- Networking Opportunities
